Get on board with us for the 2026–2028 Tax Support & Profit Reinvestment Policies - for German SMEs in China

Join the German Centre Shanghai together with bdp in the first quarter of 2026 for a very comprehensive workshop on tax and finance in China, with a special focus on the new Chinese reinvestment policies and all you need to know for your company's effective financial planning in 2026.

bdp CEO and tax advisor Dr. Michael Bormann together with his team will start this interactive session with the necessary background know-how on financial reporting frameworks in China and Germany, followed by an introduction to the Double Taxation Agreement (DTA) between China and Germany as well as its coverage and six selected, hands-on case studies on eliminating double taxation for non-resident companies and foreign individuals. Building on that, they will provide a detailed analysis of the actual advantages and practical implications of the new Chinese tax support & reinvestment policies.

Dr. Michael Bormann and his colleagues are the perfect team drawing on extensive practical experience in finance and taxation in China and Germany, to answer your questions and show how foreign companies in China can improve their financial and tax compliance.
